

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE PREVENTION SEMINAR

A special half-day seminar presented by the Fresno Regional Workforce Development Board - *Business Services Center

The need for workplace violence prevention training has never been greater. This unique seminar includes a multi-faceted approach to address various legal, HR and public defense best practices to help make your workplace more secure.

Paul J. Bauer, an attorney with Sagaser, Watkins & Wieland PC, Brenda Budke, Executive Director, at Sierra HR Partners, Les Van Meter, Retired Deputy IV, and Daniel Cervantes, Retired Sergeant with the Fresno County Sheriff's Office, will be presenting prevention techniques and strategies to establish clear policies for workplace violence. Training topics include:

- Effective policy implementation for emergency response
- Legal issues on violence in the workplace
- Recent trends/terrorism
- Situational awareness
- Active shooter defensive training
- Survival actions - what to do/what to expect when violence erupts
- Law Enforcement/Emergency Medical Services response and the aftermath
- Portions of this program may include graphic violence

Thursday, May 25, 2017, 8:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Small Business Administration

801 R. Street, First Floor, Fresno, CA 93721

(Free parking available along R Street, or the Promenade parking lot by SBA)

Seating is limited. To register Click Here, or visit our website at: www.fresnobsc.com
(559) 230-4062

8:00 a.m. – 8:30 a.m. Registration, Networking & Continental Breakfast
8:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. Seminar

This activity is pending approval for HRCI General credit for 2.5 hours